PDPL APPLICATION FORM

According to the Personal Data Protection Law No. 6698 (the “PDPL”), individuals defined as data subjects (hereinafter referred to as the “Applicant”) are granted certain rights regarding the processing of their personal data under Article 11 of the PDPL.

In accordance with the first paragraph of Article 13 of the PDPL, applications regarding these rights to our company, which is the data controller, must be submitted in writing or through other methods determined by the Personal Data Protection Board (“Board”).

In this context, applications to be made to our Company in “written” form can be submitted by printing out this form and delivering it:

- In person by the Applicant,
- Through a notary,
- Using a “secure electronic signature” defined in the Electronic Signature Law No. 5070, a mobile signature, or the electronic mail address previously notified to our company and registered in our systems by the Applicant.

Below is the information provided on how to deliver written applications through the specific written application channels.
